

MEMORANDUM

To: Bankruptcy Practitioners in the Middle District of Georgia
From: Kyle George, Clerk of Court
Subject: Proposed Amendment to Local Rules – Briefing Page Limit August 13, 2026

1. The Judges of the Court propose an amendment to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1 Motion Practice. The amended local rule will provide a page limitation for all motions, responses, and briefs to 20 pages, with a limitation of 10 pages for replies. The page limitation will not be applicable to exhibits. Our proposed rule is similar to the District Court for the Middle District of Georgia’s Local Rule 7.4 “Page Limitation” in civil cases.

2. The proposed amendment is as follows:

LBR 9013-1. Motion Practice

Sections (a) – (c) are omitted.

(d) Page Limits for Motions and Briefs.

(1) Except upon good cause shown and leave given by the Court, all motions, responses, and briefs are limited in length to twenty (20) pages. If applicable, a movant’s reply brief may not exceed ten (10) pages. Page limitation is not applicable to exhibits.

(2) A party seeking permission to exceed these limitations shall do so by filing a written motion no later than five (5) days in advance of the applicable deadline and by specifying the number of pages requested.

3. If you have any questions or comments concerning the proposed rule amendment, please send them to me via email at kyle_george@gamb.uscourts.gov no later than September 18, 2026.
